Posta Zirm Hotel

Corvara Ski Resort, Dolomites Mountains, Italy

Located in the centre of Corvara ski resort, and right in the heart of the Dolomites, the Posta Zirm Hotel is the flagship village establishment.

Known to Dolomites Ski Tours' clients simply as "The Post", the family ambience, traditional customs and contemporary comfort combine for a distinct and relaxing atmosphere. The managing family takes great care to spoil you in a professional but subtle manner, and with traditional hospitality.

The hotel, in the famous Alta Badia region, offers the finest winter holiday enjoyment. Enjoy high-class cuisine, Far Eastern wellness philosophies and breathtaking views of Corvara all around.

You'll be delighted by the proximity of the 8-person Col Alto Gondola right at the back door. Talk about location! This lift whisks you straight onto the famous Sellaronda circuit with all its resorts and 450 ski lifts.

KOSTNER FAMILY: Corvara tourism pioneers

Home from an expedition to the Himalayas in the early 1900s, Franz Kostner was the first to recognise the potential for tourism in the valley. In 1908 he acquired the hotel.

In the 1930s he founded a private transport company to bring tourists to the valley. Franz also built the first chairlift in Italy, the Col Alto lift, that fittingly lies just a few steps out his back door.

Over the years, the entire family has helped to promote the development of tourism and the preservation of the culture and customs of the Alta Badia area. They do so with enthusiasm and a spirit that shows no signs of fading.
